MEMORANDUM.

The following Press Communique is published for general information :—

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

The following Army Instruction, India, No. 969 of 1919, extending to Imperial Service Troops and their followers concession regarding Medical treatment is hereby republished for general information :—

A. I. I. No. 969 of 1919.

"Sanction is accorded to the extension to disabled soldiers and followers of Imperial Service Troops who have served in the recent war of the concessions authorised in Army Instructions (India) Nos. 807 and 930 of 1919."

A. I. I. No. 807 of 1919.

"It has been decided that the Indian soldiers and followers, referred to in Army Instruction (India) No. 653 of 1919, will, whilst undergoing treatment in the Orthopaedic Institute at Dehra Dun, receive free diet and also an allowance of Rs. 6 a month per man from the Imperial Indian Relief Fund. They will also be entitled to the following concessions as regards passage to their homes, on discharge from the Institute :—

(i) Free passage, on warrant, by rail, river and sea, from the Institute to their homes, the class of accommodation to be provided being restricted to that to which the patient would have been entitled when serving in the army.

(ii) Free conveyance by road under the provisions of Army Regulations, India, Volume X, Paragraph 39.

(iii) An allowance of four annas per man per diem in lieu of rations for road and rail journeys.

2. The incidence and adjustment of the expenditure involved in the concession of free diet and the grant of passages will as indicated in paragraph 2 of Army Instruction (India) No. 653 of 1919.

A. I. I. No. 930 of 1919.

Indian soldiers and public followers who have been discharged from the Army on account of wounds received in action and who subsequently require further medical or surgical assistance for the wounds, shall be admitted into military hospitals where they will receive free diet. The following concessions will also be admissible:—

(i) Free passage, on warrant, by rail, river and road, from their homes to the military hospital, also for the return journey. The class of accommodation by rail will be that to which they were entitled when serving in the Army. Passage by road will be governed by the rule in Note 2, paragraph 70 (b) Army Regulations, India, Volume X.

(ii) An allowance of four annas for man per diem in lieu of rations, for road and rail journey.

2. The extra expenditure involved is debitable to His Majesty's Government through the Controller of War Accounts except in the case of men who received their wounds in action on the North-west Frontier and for whom the expenditure shall be charged to "War India, N. W. F. 1919."
